Computer Major	N/A	81	86	MISSING	B	Aude is a very serious student and cares deeply about her academics. She is good with definitions, facts, and simple programs, but struggles when the programs get more complex. When presented with complex problems, she often becomes very negative and gives up easily. This can only be solved by practicing programming and algorithm design.	Ms.Lyla
English	N/A	77	81	MISSING	B	This term in English has been heavily focused on writing and grammar. We began with basic essay structure and the TOEFL independent essay and progressed to writing personal essays for the This I Believe project on National Public Radio in the United States. Although Aude didn't do very well on the final exam, she has been progressing in English. Her This I Believe essay was very heartfelt, and she obviously took the assignment very seriously.
